

Native Oracles for 2013 Native American Healing Seminar

With David Carson and Chief Kam Lau Night Chase

David Carson, co-author of the best selling Medicine cards Deck and Chief Kam Lau Night Chase, Lakota Sundance Chief will host a workshop on native traditions and prophecies relating to the coming years through and just after 2013. The workshop will include meditation, participation and stories. David has recently published a new deck of cards entitled Oracle 2013 which are embedded with tribal teachings and will draw from this work to share prophecies and guidance therein.

David Carson has also authored Crossing into Medicine Country which is a riveting account of initiation into ancient wisdom and the healing power of a Native American shaman and of Making Medicine, A Journal Guide for the Medicine Cards. He is a novelist who has written for newspapers, films and social reform publications. Raised in Oklahoma Indian country, David learned from many tribal elders and medicine carriers. He is of Choctaw descent and has lived on various reservations in Montana and Canada. "David Carson reveals sacred Native American knowledge in a unique, new way."—Olga Kharitidi M.D

Chief Kam Lau Night Chase is a recognized teacher of the spiritual tradition of the Lakota as well as a Sun Dance Chief who has been a Sun Dancer for twenty-one years. He is a direct descendant of a long lineage of renowned Lakota chiefs, warriors, and medicine men, and has traveled widely to share the wisdom and medicine of his people, from Russia to the South Pacific, and across the North American and European continents. The elders and chiefs of the Lakota people have blessed his calling. A powerful and devoted medicine teacher, Kam brings a presence of his people's traditions that is pure and uncompromising, healing and empowering.

November 10 and 11 2007 9:30 am – 5:00pm Cost: $245
Location: East West College of Natural Medicine

Pre-Seminar Lecture: Thursday November 8 7:00pm Cost: $10.00

David Carson and Chief Night Chase will be available for readings Thursday and Friday November 8th and 9th. David Carson: $65: Chief Night Chase: $45
Call Cynthia at 941 321 6494 for reading appointments.

To Register for this Seminar,
Please Call 941-355-9080, ext. 109

